

TWO ARRESTED IN BIG FALLS ROBBERY CASE

Waupaca County Men Bound
Over to Circuit Court
For Trial

Two Big Falls men, Rinehardt and Leonard Radies, brothers, are at liberty under bail of $5,000 each and face a charge of attempting to rob the State bank at Big Falls, Waupaca county, on the early morning of September 21. Bail was furnished by their father, Charles Radies, and several farmer neighbors. The case will be tried at the next term of circuit court for Waupaca county before Judge Byron B. Park of Stevens Point.

Arrest of the men followed a quiet investigation by Waupaca county authorities who have so far based their charges largely upon circumstantial evidence. Their case is further supported by statements of L. C. Arndt, the bank cashier, which will be used against the defendants.

Arndt believes that he discovered the identity of one of the brothers by recognizing his voice after the cashier had been gagged and bound in an old unoccupied building, following his capture on a country road and the subsequent futile attempt of the robbers to break into the bank after taking him there in his own car.

Tracks made by tires of a Ford automobile, ribs of an umbrella from which the cloth was removed, presumably to be used as a blindfold, and discovery of a sack of wool from which a handkerchief had been taken, to be used as a gag, it is believed, constitute the evidence.

Hearing at Clintonville

The preliminary hearing of the two defendants was held at Clintonville, where evidence was presented which in the opinion of the court was sufficient to bind them over to circuit court for trial. The hearing was held before Justice McDonald of Clintonville.

Three points in the testimony of Deputy Sheriff Swenson of Waupaca, one of the state's witnesses, bore directly on the case. Near the place where the cashier was held up, tracks of a Ford other than the one driven by Arndt were plainly distinguished. The front right tire had a smooth tread. The other three were all different and two of them were so familiar to Mr. Swenson that he named the make of tire that made the tracks. A visit was paid by the deputy sheriff to the wagon shed of Charles Radies, father of the accused men, where tires were found upon the family car which answered the description of the imprints found in the highway, according to the witness.

Other Evidence Taken

In a shed near the car Swenson found a sack of wool that bore signs of having been opened and a handkerchief taken out. He took a handful and by comparison concluded that the wool formerly removed was used as a gag, he testified. While searching for other evidence, Swenson found several ribs of an umbrella with ravelings and scraps attached that led him to believe that the umbrella cloth had been ripped off and was later used to blindfold Arndt. Sheriff Toepe by his testimony confirmed all the statements of Deputy Swenson. Toepe had seen Swenson pick up the ribs of the umbrella and come out of the shed with the wool.

Mr. Fuchling, chairman of the town of Wyoming in Waupaca county, was with the sheriff and deputy when they found the abandoned Arndt car standing in the road which runs from Big Falls to Tigerton. The car was abandoned there after Arndt had been bound and tied in the abandoned building. Fuchling had accompanied the officers during the time they were doing the detective work and verified their statements, and also statements regarding shoeprints found in the road. During the hearing the defendants were represented by counsel. At the close of the testimony a motion for dismissal of the case for lack of evidence was denied.

Arndt, the bank cashier, told on the stand the story of how he was held up when returning from Syracuse in the early hours of the morning after encountering a dry goods box in a rough narrow piece of road at the foot of a hill. Alighting from his Ford to remove the obstruction, he was confronted by three men with their faces covered, the largest of which commanded him to hold up his hands. Arndt remembered seeing this assailant flash a silver mounted revolver in his face, and when the command was repeated he complied.

One of the men stepped back of him and quickly blindfolded him. The three then put Arndt into his own car and one of the assailants ran the car to town, entering Big Falls from the north instead of the south as the cashier had planned to do.

SOO TRAIN HITS CAR MAN THROWN 50 FEET

Passenger No. 1 Falls into Stevens Point Plastered with Paint

After Crossing Mishap

The locomotive pulling Soo passenger train No. 1, which arrived here one and one-half hours late at 10:20 o'clock Monday a. m., was literally plastered with white paint as the result of a mishap just east of Weyauwega. Going at the rate of 15 to 20 miles per hour it bumped into a Jeffries touring owned and driven by Henry Pagen, a Weyauwega painter, who was hauling a quantity of material to a rural district.

The car was completely destroyed and Pagen thrown a distance of more than 50 feet, but the only apparent injuries were slight cuts and bruises on top of his head. That he escaped instant death is considered almost a miracle.

The train was in charge of Conductor Ira Yantis and Engineer Fuller.

It is said that Pagen could plainly see the passenger's approach and also was warned by bystanders not to attempt going over the track, but he "took a chance" and lost out. He is a married man, 45 years of age, with a family of two children.

Besides smearing the engine with paint, several timbers on the pilot were broken and iron and wood steps on the locomotive and baggage cars were bent or broken.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO ASSAULT CHARGES

Trials of Carl Henning and R. G. Fuller Are Set For

November 9
Carl Henning and R. G. Fuller, state prohibition enforcement agents, pleaded not guilty to charges of assault and battery when they were arraigned before Justice G. L. Park late Monday afternoon.

Trials were set for November 9 in the same court and the two men were released on their own recognizance. No bail was asked because each of them are under $5,000 bonds of the state.

Complaints against Fuller and Henning were signed by Leo Wanta, proprietor of a saloon which they raided last week, and George Moliski, a local resident.

CLAUDE SHUMWAY DIES

A message received in the city Saturday afternoon from W. J. Shumway at Redlands, Calif., announced that his son, Claude Shumway, had passed away on Friday. It was stated that burial would take place in the west.

Mr. Shumway failed to reach Yucca, Calif., where his son had been a patient for several months, before he passed away. He learned of the death after reaching Redlands, his son's home.

Claude Shumway went to California 12 years ago because of tuberculosis trouble and had since resided in that state. His mother had been with him there most of the time during the past two or three years. A month ago the father was called west when their son suffered a relapse. His condition improved and Mr. Shumway returned home, to be again called west last week by another message stating that the patient's condition was alarming.

The deceased was in the 39th year of his age. Besides the parents, there survive two sisters, Mrs. F. A. Hollister of Aurora, Ill., and Mrs. L. C. Harvey of Shawnee, Okla. It is believed here that burial took place Monday at Redlands.

The cashier's ring of keys were taken from him and the side door of the bank building unlocked. Arndt was commanded to open the safe. He opened the outer door but the time lock was set for 8 o'clock that morning so it could not be unlocked.

The trio then took the cashier in his car and drove him out on the road toward Hunting, where they left Arndt gagged and bound in an old unoccupied building. He could tell by the sound that his car and another were being driven in a direction away from Big Falls. Later he heard a Ford approaching, and having freed himself from the blindfold and ropes, saw it pass as it went toward Big Falls. Among the voices he heard as it passed was that of Rinehardt Radies, according to his testimony. The two men he believed were the Radies brothers and had not spoken during the encounter earlier that night as the spokesman was another man, larger in stature whom Mr. Arndt estimated would weigh from 175 to 190 pounds.

SCHOOL BUDGET $20,000 HIGHER THAN YEAR AGO

Building Project Brings Total Amount Needed Up to $170,138

The board of education budget for the 1922-1923 school year, calling for $170,138, or approximately $20,000 more than a year ago, went to the common council Tuesday, following its passage by the school board on Monday evening.

The necessity for the big increase has been occasioned by the cost of new equipment in present ward buildings and the High school, lockers for corridors, and seats for the auditorium of the new High school wing, other expenses incident to the building project and a larger teaching staff, made necessary by a bigger enrollment.

The budget includes estimated state aid of $10,000 and estimated tuition of $8,000, leaving the remainder of the $170,138, or $152,138, to be raised by local taxation.

Teaching Cost Higher
By far the largest item listed is $102,638, which appears under the classification of "Salaries." This amount is approximately $8,000 larger than the corresponding item in last year's budget, and is to take care of an increase in the teaching force occasioned by larger enrollment, according to board members and the city superintendent.

The next biggest item is $13,000, for new equipment in the old buildings. This sum is intended to meet the cost of the new heating plant and toilet system in the McKinley school, and new equipment for domestic science and chemistry in the old High school building.

Lockers and Seats
The sum of $10,000 is asked for under "Equipment for New Building." This amount is needed for the purchase of lockers for the corridors in the new High school wing, and seats for the new auditorium. No cloak rooms or desks for books are provided for in the new unit.

The cost of "Repairs of Buildings" is listed at $4,000, to include approximately $2,200 for cutting up the old assembly room in the High school into five classrooms and for a partition between the old building and the new.

Other extra expenses brought about by the building project are $7,500 for the architect and $1,200 for the superintendent of construction.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

BOY FATALLY INJURED

The 12 year old son of Frank Woytasak of Bevent, Marathon county, was struck by an automobile a few days ago, knocked to the ground and run over. He was so badly injured that he died less than 24 hours later. The accident occurred in the village of Bevent. The car did not stop after striking the boy, but its license number was secured. This was the second death in the family within a month. Mrs. Woytasak, the mother, dying three weeks ago.

THE TOUGHEST PROBLEM OF THEM ALL

PROGRAM PLANNED AS FAIR BENEFIT

Race Meet Ball Game and Band Concert to Comprise Entertainment

A benefit program of races, ball games, and a band concert for the Stevens Point Fair Association, is to be put on at the fair grounds on Sunday afternoon.

Money to help pay a deficit incurred in this year's Stevens Point fair, is hoped to be paid through this program.

Local baseball players have donated their services, local horsemen are entering their horses in a program of races and the Consolidated band has donated its services for the afternoon.

"This is your fair, as well as it is our fair," says an announcement of the association. "We are going to make the Stevens Point fair the largest and best fair in our circuit and we want every resident of Portage county to feel that this is their fair."

"Don't get the impression that the members of the fair association are making money. They are not. They are just trying to do something to help Portage county, and it's your duty to help them."

TAXES ON ESTATES TOTAL NEARLY $900

at $67,544.78

Inheritance taxes paid in Portage county during the months of July, August and September totalled $892.69, according to a report compiled at the office of County Treasurer Earl Newby at the court house, and mailed to State Treasurer Henry Johnson.

Only two estates in the county which were settled, paid the inheritance tax. They were the estates of the late John Gibson and Frank Bemowski. A tax of $57.20 was paid by the heirs of John Gibson and $84.49 by those of Frank Bemowski.

A schedule of the estate of the late Mr. Gibson shows that the entire amount, $2,339.91, was willed to Ella Gibson, a niece.

The clear market value of the estate of the late Mr. Bemowski was $67,544.78, according to a schedule on file at the court house, and the following heirs shared: Lucy Bemowski, widow, $35,873.66; John, son, $6,988.82; Paul, son, $4,474.30; Edward, son, $5,994.44; Frank, son, $1,498.29; Joseph, son, $4,900.91.

Seven and one-half per cent of the total amount paid during the past three months, or $9,894.90, goes to the county, $29, is paid to L. P. Moen, the public administrator, and the remainder, $37,771.13, is paid the state.

TWO HURT IN CRASH OF CARS AT NIGHT ON PLOVER HIGHWAY

Wisconsin Rapids Coupe and Touring Car with Four Occupants Collided near Springville—Machinist Wrecked

Two cars were badly wrecked, one person injured and another less seriously hurt, in a collision a quarter of a mile south of Springville pond on state trunk highway No. 10 at 10 o'clock Sunday night. The wrecked machines were left in the road all night and were towed away after 9 o'clock Monday morning.

The collision occurred when a Buick touring car driven by Albert Wood of Almond, who was en route to Stevens Point from Wisconsin Rapids, and a Ford coupe driven by Jerry Klein of Wisconsin Rapids, who was on his way home, came together. Arthur Valentine of Almond, an occupant of the back seat of the Wood car, was cut on the head by flying glass. Klein lost a front tooth in the crash.

Wood and Valentine, accompanied by two young women, were en route to this city after spending the evening at Wisconsin Rapids. The men are employed here. According to Wood, he noticed the other car approaching on his side of the road and just before the crash occurred, swung over toward the left side of the highway in an effort to avoid being struck. Klein, who was driving south, is said to have assumed responsibility for the accident, according to the garage man who was sent to Springville from Wisconsin Rapids to tow the coupe to that city.

The front end of the Buick is a total wreck. The radiator was crushed in, bumper broken off, headlights smashed, windshield broken, frame bent and sprung and the fender and running board on the right side demolished. One front wheel was also broken off. The right side of the coupe was badly damaged. The running board and fender were wrecked, frame and axle bent and the wheels turned in such a manner, that one of them was forced underneath the body of the car. The springs on the right side in front were broken and the radiator dented.

The touring car was towed to a local garage for repairs.

The accident occurred at a stretch in the highway which has been the scene of several bad smashups during the past several months.

Wood Monday engaged the services of attorneys to represent him in a pending suit against Klein to recover damages.

PLANS WESTERN TRIP

W. F. Parker has arranged transportation for a trip to the west and expects to leave here tonight for Bellingham, Wash., to visit his brother, Theo. Parker. He will also spend several days near the Pacific coast.

HEARINGTON EXAMINED FOUND TO BE INSANE

Perpetrator of Alleged Crooked Business Deal Here Examined by Physicians

David Hearington, whose residence is unknown, and who became involved in the long arm of the law at Billings, Mont., following an alleged crooked business deal consummated here with Peter Woyach and other local residents, was on Thursday afternoon found insane by three local physicians who examined him on petition of District Attorney B. J. Carpenter and Sheriff John A. Berry.

A commitment to the state hospital for the insane at Oshkosh was made out in Hearington's case by Judge W. F. Owen after a hearing, and a consultation with the physicians who examined him, Drs. F. A. Southwick, E. H. Rogers and W. W. Gregory.

Hearington's actions in the county jail since he was confined there gave the sheriff and district attorney ample cause for believing the man to be deranged. He became hysterical, going into continual fits of crying and sobbing.

Profuse quoting of passages from the Bible, and a letter to the district attorney containing many quotations from the Good Book, caused officials to doubt his condition of mind. One of the quotations to which the district attorney was referred by Hearington in his letter was: "He that is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone."

Hearington had been in poor health, and the examination of the physicians disclosed a depression in the back of his head, evidently from an injury.

RESIDENCE RENOVATED

Many Improvements Made at Anton Gilkey Home on Center Street

What amounts to a virtual rebuilding of the residence property at 427 Center street, has been completed and Anton Gilkey and family now reside there.

The house was moved several feet to the east, a full basement dug, stone foundation laid and the roof raised to two full stories, giving several additional rooms. A sleeping porch was also built on the west side and nearly all modern improvements installed, including furnace heat, electricity, and gas and a private water system.

WEST SIDE IMPROVEMENT

Pearl street, running north from Central avenue on the West side, was plowed up the latter part of last week preparatory to improving that thoroughfare. It is planned to extend West side street improvement work to Rock avenue, a new street which parallels Central avenue north of the latter street.

TWO LOCAL MEN KILLED IN FALL AT WESTFIELD

Fred Playman and John Czaplewski Meet Death When Staging Breaks

(From Monday's Daily)

Two well known Stevens Point men, Fred Playman, carpenter contractor, and John Czaplewski, mason contractor, met tragic death at the little city of Westfield Saturday afternoon. Both plunged to their death from a 20 foot scaffold upon which they were at work, striking upon their heads on the cement sidewalk below.

The corpses of the two victims have been brought to Stevens Point and separate burial services were being planned by members of their respective families today. Mr. Playman was instantly killed, while his companion lived less than 10 minutes after the fall.

Third Man Saves Himself

The position of the men, both of whom were stooping over at their work when the scaffolding gave way, prevented either of them from attempting to break the fall or from striking other than on their heads. A third man, a resident of Westfield, who was also on the scaffolding, saved himself by throwing his arm over a brace and hanging on when the staging broke. A few moments later he was helped to the ground with the assistance of a group of men who rushed to the scene.

Working Near Top

Mr. Playman, who had the contract for the erection of a two story brick store building for H. J. Mcbanks at Westfield, was at work at one end of the scaffolding near the top of the structure 20 feet from the ground. The exterior work on the structure was being completed Saturday and he had knelt down on the scaffolding as he was working and had stooped forward and downward to scrape some mortar from a small section of the brick work. Czaplewski, who was in his employ, had walked over from near the center of the staging to where Mr. Playman was at work, to get mortar to apply to the brick at the place he had been standing. He had stooped over to pick up the mortar.

Staging Gives Way

The combined weight of the two men at the end of the scaffold proved too much for it to support and when it suddenly collapsed both were pitched head forward to the cement walk 20 feet below. Mr. Playman's head was crushed in and his neck broken. All of the bones in his head were broken and his brain was also crushed. Death was instantaneous when the victim struck the walk. Mr. Czaplewski struck on the back of his head, which was also crushed and badly cut. He was in an unconscious condition and first aid was given him but death came in less than 10 minutes.

Tragedy Arouses Town

The tragedy occurred at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and the news quickly spread to every home in Westfield. The entire population quickly rushed to the place and many stayed there until late into the evening. It was the worst tragedy in Westfield's history and was the only topic of conversation on the streets for hours afterward. A message announcing the death of the two men reached Stevens Point shortly afterward and preparations were at once made to bring Mr. Playman's body home. This was done and later Saturday night another trip was made to bring the corpse of Mr. Czaplewski to this city.

Fred M. Playman

Fred M. Playman's birthplace was Milwaukee and the date July 16, 1880, making him a few months past 42 years of age. The family moved to Hortonville while he was a child and he grew to young manhood there. In 1885 Mr. Playman was married to Miss Minetta Jack and to them were born two sons, Earl S. Playman, now an engineer on the Soo line with headquarters at Fond du Lac, and Dr. Harold L. Playman, a dentist surgeon at Appleton.

Mrs. Playman passed away April 11, 1920.

Mr. Playman's second marriage took place on May 4, 1921, his bride being Miss Ethel Alton.

Other near relatives are two brothers and three sisters, Charles Playman now in the west and Wm. L. Playman of this city; Mrs. Fred Otto of Bessemer, Mich.; Mrs. Flora Gourd of Eveleth, Minn., and Mrs. Fred Portier of Philadelphia.

Mr. Playman's fraternal associations included membership in Shant-Lodge of Odd Fellows, which he served as trustee at the time of

The 14-Hour Day and the Eight-hour Day

"This is the situation as respects the farmers," said one of Portage county's leading farmers in a talk to a newspaperman: "Nature was good to the potato-growers this year. We had almost ideal weather.
It rained just about as often as we needed. We have large crops of beautiful stock. So far, so good.
But we are selling our potatoes now at Bancroft and Almond for 50 cents a hundred, or 30 cents a bushel. I have already sold considerable at that price. That is about the average price of pre-war days. With other pre-war conditions prevailing, it would be satisfactory now. But back before the war, when I sold potatoes for 30 to 40 cents a bushel,
I could buy a chain we use on potato-diggers for $4. Today I bought one and it cost me $12.50. Other things are in proportion. I do not claim that the man who sold me the chain made too much, or that the man who manufactured it made too much. They are paying their help better wages and working shorter hours. But the farmer has continued on the long-hour day. As I sum up the situation it is just this: What the farmer sells is produced on a basis of 14 hours constituting one day's work, and what the farmer buys is produced on a basis of eight hours being one day's work. That means we are getting only half prices, or are paying double prices, whichever way you look at it."

The farmer mentioned does not want labor in the city to work longer hours, nor does he see how he can cut down his own work day. Solution of the farmer's troubles, the weakest point in the whole business situation, is surely a difficult problem.

The State Potato Show

It is fitting that the first public occasion on which the new Whiting hotel is to be used is the state potato show to be held here a month hence.
Portage is the biggest potato-producing county in Wisconsin. It has held that honor for 40 years. A great deal of the development of the county, and of the city and villages in it, has been due to the potato. The quantity of the potato yield and the price are questions which, solved properly, will mean much for the future growth of the whole county, of the business interests of Stevens Point and of the new hotel dependent on such business interests. The purpose of the potato convention is to find ways and means to make potato-growing more profitable.

We will have hundreds of growers here. We should welcome them heartily and give them every cooperation in the valuable work they are doing as an organization for the development of their industry, and through it, the development of our community.

Arterial Highways in Stevens Point

Larger cities are adopting the arterial highway system. Certain streets are declared "arterial highways", and on those streets cars have the right of way against cars coming in from the sides. Drivers on cross streets are required to come to a complete stop when they come to an arterial highway, then watch their chance to cross. When two arterial highways cross, the stop rule is applied to both.

Stevens Point is especially adapted, because of its narrow streets, to the arterial highway system, the effect of the application of which is to move traffic faster on the main streets.
Our streets are so narrow that we can't have any traffic posts obstructing them with the possible exception of the little mushroom traffic posts close to the ground. We could have North Second, Main and Clark streets made arterial highways, also State avenue and Church street. Wherever this plan is used it seems to give satisfaction.

TWO LOCAL MEN RECEIVE

UNIVERSITY DIPLOMAS
The names of two Stevens Point men are included in a list of 105 from Wisconsin cities who have received diplomas from the University of Wisconsin since the end of the summer session. They are Herbert R. Steiner, bachelor of philosophy in the Normal course, and Carl B. Christensen, bachelor of science in the college of engineering.

Were You Ever in Stevens Point

(From the Kenosha News)

Were you ever in Stevens Point?
It's a wonderful little Wisconsin city made up of prosperous people. It is historical as one of the centers of refinement and education in the Badger state and its people have always been noted for their hospitality. It is known as a little city that does big things—but did you ever drop into Stevens Point, tired with a long day of motoring and try to get a bed for the night. The fellow who has done that has had a chance to take the Barnes method of seeing Kenosha as others see us. Stevens Point is not long on hotels just at present but it is going to be a lot better in a little while. The luckless traveler who gets into the town now is confronted with a problem. There are not beds enough there to take care of the regular visitors and the ones who come late must either drive on to Appleton or Oshkosh and either town is ninety miles away. Now if you can picture yourself at Stevens Point at nine o'clock on a rainy night you can get some idea of what travelers experience in Kenosha. Stevens Point saw its trouble some time ago and now a wonderful hundred room hotel with all of the modern conveniences is just waiting for the finishing touches. It might be well for Kenosha to go in a body to Stevens Point and find out how that little city did it. There is no hotel in this section of Wisconsin that in any way compares to that new hotel at Stevens Point.

Kenosha is a city of forty-five thousand people and an attractive city.
People want to come here, they want to linger here over night but it is an impossibility. There are about sixty rooms really available to travelers in Kenosha but for the most part they would hold no attraction to the people who are looking for real hotel accommodations. The people in charge of the hotels here want to do better but they can't do it alone and they appreciate the fact that it takes money to build hotels and money to operate them.

The traveler who strikes Kenosha at night meets two propositions. One is to drive to Chicago and the other is to drive to Milwaukee. It's not as far to Milwaukee from Kenosha as it is to Oshkosh from Stevens Point but most people do not want to add thirty-five miles of driving to a days trip.

Of course Kenosha is not legally bound to provide a place to sleep and a place to eat for people who come into the city. It would be the decent and the neighborly thing to do this but the law does not provide for it.
It can be said however that Kenosha is losing a lot of business for all of its merchants, for its theatres and its stores by overlooking the important thing of offering people a comfortable place to stop. Kenosha is going to be a way station on all roads leading through it until the people of the city awake to the fact that one of the biggest assets of any real town is a hotel worth stopping at.

Stevens Point saw her error and is correcting it. Certainly Kenosha is just as big hearted and just as financially big as Stevens Point.

DIVERT CITY LABOR
TO WISCONSIN FARM

Chance to go Back and Forth Would Raise Wages in Town, Says
Marketing Commissioner

Madison, Wis., Sept. 29.—Diversion of surplus labor to farming by means of the labor unions was advocated today in a statement by Edward Nord-man, Wisconsin commissioner of markets, as a method to bring about a proper balance of labor and payments in the nation.

Accessibility to the land would create a condition, Nordman said, under which a laborer can have the choice of occupations, selecting the one which offers him the best remuneration.

"An exodus of even a small part of the labor supply toward the land, be-leaving up the situation on the labor market, will give the workingman remaining in industry an increased barr which they will receive what they should—namely, a compensation proportionate to the worth of their services," Nordman said.

Easy Way to Lands
"Easy access to the land is the balance wheel that regulates the labor markets. By diverting surplus labor to farming, the wages of those remaining in industry will be raised to a point where the purchasing power of labor will make an effective demand for farm products, thus absorbing all that is produced on the farms and assuring the farmer of good and steady markets. This in its turn will result in greater prosperity on farms and a proportionate increase in demand for manufactured commodities.
The violent fluctuations in demand will be largely eliminated by the simple process of raising and maintaining a mutual and effective demand between industry and agriculture."

Nordman believes that such a balance will come about when the productive energies of the nation are equally distributed between farming and other industries.

Lands Too High
"The one obstacle to this equal distribution, however, is inflated land values which prevent a man without means, or with small means, from engaging in independent farming," he said. "The only way to deflate land values and to bring them to the level of their use value is to readjust taxes in such a manner as to make them fall on monopolistic holdings of land and other natural resources while exempting from taxation all productive enterprises."

"A just system of taxation will release lands from the hands of monopolists and speculators, will open them to use by men who are willing and able to farm, and will stimulate productive enterprises in every field of business and industrial activity."

Reduce Surplus Nordman endorsed attempts on the part of workmen to get fair wages through organization, but declared that these attempts cannot result in substantial progress in the matter of wages because "they do not touch in any way the fundamental problem of an excess supply of labor on the market."

Surplus labor stands now as a fifth and unnecessary wheel to the wagon of industry, Nordman believed. "An opportunity to engage in farming will always stand as a haven of refuge to those who are forced to submit to any wages and living conditions that are being forced upon them in industry."

OBITUARY

Burial of Mrs. John Bibby

Friends from Stevens Point and all the surrounding country assembled at St. Martin's church Almond, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, to do honor to the memory of Mrs. John Bibby, of Buena Vista, funeral services for whom were conducted by the pastor, Rev. S.
A. Hasinski. Interment followed in the adjoining cemetery, where the remains were laid at rest by Fred A.
Schilling, W. M. Scribner, Geo. Mc-Ginley, Geo. Turrish, Thos. Russell, and Charles Dersha.

Mrs. Charles Scholl

An illness extending over two years, proved fatal to Mrs. Charles Scholl, 313 Park street, at 8:45 o'clock Wednesday evening. Her ailment was diagnosed as pernicious anemia, an impoverishment of the blood, and since last December she had been confined to bed practically all the time. The family left Stevens Point for Chicago in 1915, returning here last April in hopes that the invalid's condition might improve, but she was unable to get desired relief.

Deceased's maiden name was Lillian Mabel Hill and she was born at Elk-port, Iowa, 42 years ago the 2nd of last May. Her father died when she was four years of age but she and her mother continued to make Elkport their home until she grew to young womanhood. Miss Hill and Mr.
Scholl were married in Stevens Point 22 years ago and with the exception of six years' residence in Chicago they had lived here ever since.

Surviving are the husband and her mother, Mrs. Emma Cooper, the latter having been a member of the Scholl household for a number of years.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Baptist church at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Rev. James Blake officiating, with interment in Forest cemetery. Mrs. Scholl had long been an active member of the local Baptist congregation and also was affiliated with Pine Tree camp of Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. John Bibby

Another of Portage county's pioneer settlers passed away this week, Mrs.
John Bibby expiring at her home in Buena Vista at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, following an illness which extended over a period of two years.
Her principal ailment was diabetes, but other complications also set in the first part of August, since which time she was confined to bed.

One of her daughters, Mrs. J. N.
Burdick, made frequent trips to Buena Vista from Eagle River, returning here again Thursday night, accompanied by Mr. Burdick and their young son.

Mrs. Bibby's maiden name was Margaret Brown, her birthplace being in Delaware 69 years ago the 10th of last June. The family moved to Wisconsin when she was a child of 12 of 13 years and she had lived in Portage county ever since.

Her marriage to Mr. Bibby took place in this city 46 years ago in January, the young couple then taking up their residence on the groom's farm. They are the parents of six sons and daughters, Frank of Buena Vista, Mrs. Burdick, Charles of Buena Vista, Mrs. Vernon Adams of Almond, John now in the west, and William at home.

A sister and brother of the deceased, Mrs. Mary Chase and Thomas Brown, are residents of Stevens Point, Mrs. Bibby also leaves eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at St.
Martin's church, Almond, at 10 o'clock clock Saturday morning, with burial in the parish cemetery.

Infant Daughter Dead

Louise, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westowski, 313 North Third street, died Saturday, aged two months. Burial services were held at St. Peter's church Monday morning.

Mrs. Scholl's Funeral

Following the offering of prayers at her late home on Park street, the remains of Mrs. Charles Scholl were taken to the Baptist church at 2 o'clock Saturday, where services were conducted by Rev. James Blake.
The body was then laid to rest in Forest cemetery by Geo. W. Maine,
Frank Martin, F. P. Russell, Fred
Francis, Ellis Merrill and J. Sanders.

Remains Arrive Here

The remains of Mrs. Charles Oster, who died at Denver, Colo., two weeks ago last Wednesday, arrived here Friday afternoon over the Soo line and were taken to Forest cemetery for burial beside her husband.
Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Kromer, brother-in-law and sister of the deceased, accompanied the body from Denver.
They will go to Wisconsin Rapids today for a short visit at their former home.

Mrs. Oster left Stevens Point about 15 years ago and lived at Minneapolis until last spring, when she went to Colorado to be with her sister. Her illness extended over a period of many months, a portion of which time she was almost helpless and required the services of a nurse.

A number of local friends of the family assembled at the depot shortly before the train reached here and attended the burial rites.

Aged Resident Dies

Mrs. Mary Kropidowski, one of the oldest settlers in the town of Stockton, was buried from St. Mary's church at Fancher Saturday, Rev.
J. Chylinski officiating, interment being in the parish cemetery.

Mrs. Kropidowski passed away at her home southeast of Arnot Thursday morning at 1 o'clock, aged 86
years.

She is survived by three sons and two daughters, Joseph of Stockton, John of Sharon, Andrew of Chicago.
Mrs. Andrew Janowski of Flint, Mich., and Mrs. Felix Przybylski of Abbotsford, Wis., There are numerous grandchildren.

IS FOUND INSANE

Anastasia Ostrowski, 75, a resident of the town of Carson, was adjudged insane by Doctors E. H. Rogers and W. W. Gregory after an examination at the county jail. She was committed to the state hospital for the insane at Winnebago Friday.

CORNER STONE LAYING PLANNED AT HIGH SCHOOL

Board Elects Prof. James E. Delsell to Speak at Ceremonies

The board of education Monday evening decided that appropriate ceremonies shall be conducted when the corner stone of the new High school wing is laid. This will be in the near future, the date depending upon when the stone, which is now being cut, arrives in the city.

The matter was called to the attention of the board by Supt. H. C. Snyder and members of the body, after a short discussion, decided that an address should be delivered at the ceremonies. They then elected one of their own members, Prof. James E. Delsell, to give the speech.

The ceremonies will be open to the public and will probably be conducted just at the close of an afternoon session of school at the High school to insure the students there attending in a body. Besides the address, High school music will be furnished. The corner stone will contain a list of names of board members, a story about the High school and the history of the movement to get it, as well as other interesting school information.

Part Time Teacher
The board engaged the services of Fred Dollaway, a former Normal student, as a part time teacher in the manual training department after the superintendent had explained that due to a heavy enrollment in that department the present instructors, Messrs. Steckel and Gerke, are unable to handle grade classes. Mr. Dollaway will have charge of grade work, receiving $10 per week and working two hours each day. He did practice work at the High school last year. The superintendent explained that hiring someone for part time work would be the cheapest way to solve the existing problem.

Deaf School Opens
The superintendent reported having secured the services of Miss Anna Condon as deaf school instructor here and that the school was opened last week. Miss Condon formerly held this position but went west to California a year ago. She will receive a salary of $1,400 providing the school has enough income from tuition to pay that amount. There are now several pupils enrolled and the school is in its old location, in the Washington building.

Coal Bid Accepted
A bid of the Copps company to furnish the board with a carload of Franklin county lump coal at $10.08 delivered in the bins was accepted. There was one other bidder, Gross and Jacobs, which submitted an offer of $10 per ton car weight or $10.15 if each load is weighed. With a difference of seven cents per ton in the cost of the coal delivered the contract went to the Copps company.

Petitions for Pension
A petition was read from Michael Neumann which stated that he had served the board faithfully as janitor of the Washington school for 26 years, that his health had entirely failed and due to a breakdown from work while employed by the board and that he is unable financially to support himself and wife and has no means with which to secure a living. Mr. Neumann asked that the board grant him a pension or an allowance to assist him in securing a living. Board members felt that his case was a worthy one but decided that having no pension fund they have no authority to appropriate money for this purpose. The same decision was reached a year ago when Mr. Neumann resigned. It was suggested Monday evening that the matter be taken up with the city controller.

Immel Asks for Pay
Clerk F. A. Neuberger reported that John Immel of the Immel Construction company, which is building the High school unit, had asked that some provision be made at once for paying him $12,514.60, the balance due on the last estimate for work and material. When the board members were told that an order bonds to the sale of the High school bonds would not be acceptable by Mr. Immel, because it would not be a turn be acceptable by his bank, the board voted to have its president and secretary sign a note for the amount asked, with maturity at 90 days or before, without interest, to be drawn upon the new High school building fund. The "no interest" condition was included to make an interest payment of approximately $140 payable by the contractor instead of the board.

Parish Rental Cut
In passing on the current bills for the month, upon recommendation of the Finance committee, the board allowed only $300 on a bill for $47.65 or rental of the Parish house last winter when it was used for High school basketball practice. Agreement had been reached with Church of intercession representatives by which $100 a month was considered ample and $150 per month too high. Superintendent Snyder explained, but when he bill came in it was for the largest amount. In allowing the $300, the board specified that it should be understood that this was payment in full. F. A. Neuberger reported that the gymnasium in the new unit will be ready for use in six weeks' time and that the brick for its interior finish was just arrived.

During the year 70 new members were added to the church roll. The meeting adjourned with refreshments being served by Mrs. Myra Miller, assisted by Mrs. Yorton.

his death, and the Modern Woodmen of America, where he also filled various offices, including that of consul. He represented the Third Ward as alderman for several terms, was long a member of the county board of supervisors, and some years ago was a Third Ward member of the board of education. All of these positions he filled with honor and credit.

As a contractor, Mr. Playman erected many of the best buildings in Stevens Point and constructed a number of school houses, residences, etc., at various places in central Wisconsin. Everything that he did was done well. A high type of citizen, Mr. Playman always had the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

Lived Here 22 Years

John Czaplewski was a native of German Poland, born there 73 years ago the 29th of last December. At the age of eighteen he emigrated to America, locating at Milwaukee and lived there almost continuously until his removal to Stevens Point some 22 years ago. He was married in Milwaukee to Miss Marion Suplicki and they were the parents of eighteen children, only four of whom survive. They are John of Chicago, Mrs. Frank Zolander of this city, Anton and Alfred of Chicago. One brother, Stephen Czaplewski, resides in Milwaukee.

Several years ago the now deceased built the two story brick dwelling at 473 Fourth avenue and this had been the family home ever since. He also owned the brick block at the northeast corner of the public square and North Second street, the lower floor of which is occupied by Zolander's shoe store and Koska's grocery.

The superintendent reported an enrollment of 500 in the High school and a grand total enrollment of 1,392 in all the public schools, including the High school. This was compared with a High school enrollment of 461 and a grand total of 1,747 a year ago. One building to another. A number of adjustments are still to be made.

JOHN MAY GIVEN HIS LIBERTY BY GOVERNOR BLAINE

Marshfield Bank Bandit Is A "Victim of War" Says Executive

Madison, Sept. 30—John May, sentenced to 10 years in Waupun following the robbing of a Marshfield bank of $1,700 on a day in July, 1921, has been granted a conditional pardon by Governor John J. Blaine.

"He is a victim of the world war," Governor Blaine said in granting May's clemency. He is pardoned in custody of Vincent A. Hirsch of Medford.

Captured after he made a desperate attempt to evade authorities in a stolen car, May was sentenced by Judge Byron E. Park at the court house in Stevens Point, and jumped headlong out of an open window, in the second floor of the building, to land on stone steps 20 feet below, when he was rendered unconscious and recaptured. May's leap followed only a few minutes after the sentence had been pronounced by the court. He was confined to the county jail in Stevens Point for several days after the sensational attempt to gain freedom was made.

One absolute pardon, nine conditional pardons, thirteen denials of pardon applications and postponement of action on three other men now in state prison were announced by Governor Blaine.

Absolute Pardon

The only absolute pardon was granted to a girl, Avis Stewart, Monroe county, sentenced in July, 1919, to the girls' industrial home until she is 21 years old. She is now on parole, and was pardoned because she "had earned it" and because she had marriage "in prospect." Governor Blaine said in a memorandum. She was sentenced for "incurability." Christ Vick, Dane county, who "stole a pig and away he ran," in an automobile, and who was sentenced to 3 years in state prison last December, was pardoned in custody of his wife. MOSINEE SQUAD EASILY BEATEN BY POINT, 27-0

First Team Plays Only First Quarter and Is Then Withdrawn

The Mosinee High school football team, inexperienced and lacking in weight, was no match for the heavy, veteran first-string Stevens Point High school squad Saturday afternoon, and the local preps won the affair easily, 27 to 0.

Captain Virgil Herrick of the Point squad carried the ball over the Mosinee line for the first touchdown a few moments after the start of the game, when he grabbed a pass from Boone on the forty-yard line and galloped the remainder of the distance for the score. McDonald's kick off the try-for-point hit the cross-bar and bounded back.

Regulars Withdrawn

Mosinee's ball carriers were unable to gain through the heavy forward wall of the Olson crew, and repeatedly failed to make downs. The Point regulars scored one more touchdown, McDonald made his kick good, and with the score 13 to 0 in favor of Stevens Point, Coach Carl G. Olson withdrew his first squad and sent his seconds into the game.

The seconds, under the generalship of Duggan at quarter, and with big gains by Lepinski and Bukolt in the backfield, went over the Mosinee line, for a third touchdown. The goal was kicked, bringing the score to 20. The half ended with Stevens Point in possession of the ball on the Mosinee one-yard line.

The injuring of Pavlick, Mosinee fullback, in the opening minutes of play, crippled the visiting squad. Pavlick was the only man on the team who showed much experience and football ability, and his loss was apparent in the ranks of the visitors.

Seconds Given Battle

Mosinee gave the Point second and third-raters who were sent into the game in the third quarter a harder battle, and it was not until Krembs was put back in the quarterback position, and Swan, went into the line once more, that Stevens Point scored again, in the fourth quarter. The try-for-goal was successful, the ball going neatly through the bars.

The Mosinee opposition was so weak that very little chance to give the Pointers a rating was afforded. Seldom were the first stringers held by the Mosinee line, but there were no spectacular gains made. Mass formations were used, and no attempt to work spread plays or any great amount of passes was made.

Line-Ups

The following squad started for Stevens Point: Boone, lg; Herrick, lt; Johnson, lg; Siebert, c; Swan, rg; Harwood, rt; Relahan, re; Krembs, qb; Copps, lb; Spindler, rh; McDonald, fb. HIGHWAY WORK IN THE COUNTY IS NEARLY DONE

More Than $75,000 Has Been Spent In Roads and Bridges

(From Friday's Daily)
By Saturday night of this week, it is expected, all road work in Portage county for the 1922 season will have been completed.

Crews were at work today in five different towns in the county, completing jobs that have been in progress in some instances, the greater part of the summer.

One crew is surfacing with gravel a stretch on the North Star road in the town of Sharon.

Finish County Trunk Job

Another crew is completing the job of surfacing and graveling a three and one-half mile piece on county trunk "C" from Amherst to Blaine in the town of Lanark, which, when it is finished, will give people living in the vicinity of Almond and Blaine a hard-surfaced road all the way from their homes to Amherst and to Stevens Point.

Work is going on on county trunk "C" in the town of Amherst, surfacing what is known as the "River Road" in Amherst. This is an extension of "C" and connects with county trunk "G."

A mile and a half of graveling and surfacing is being finished in the town of Linwood on the Rocky Run road, with bridges and culverts.

Polonia-Custer

In the towns of Stockton and Sharon work is being completed on the graveling and surfacing on the Polonia-Custer road. This will make a good road all the way from Polonia to Custer when finished. The Hunters Corners-Arnott-Liberty Corners road is completed.

When all work is finished on highways and on bridges and culverts in the county, approximately $75,000 will have been spent.

Of this sum, the largest amount was appropriated by the town of Plover in the mile of concrete from the Whiting-Plover paper mill to state highway 10 at Bourne's corner, $25,000.

Towns Borrow Money

The county board of supervisors appropriated approximately $30,000 for road work last fall, to which was added $7,000 in state aid. Four towns in the county borrowed $15,000 for road work in the county, thus using up their road appropriation for the coming year.

Stockton put $5,000 in roads, Amherst $4,000, Linwood $1,000 and Belmont $2,000. This is money that these towns would have secured from the county board at this fall's meeting. Not willing to wait another year before the work is done, the towns borrowed the money, are paying the interest on the loan, and will pay the loans when the county board reimburses them at this fall's meeting, when the county's share of the work will be paid.

Bridges being built in the county at the present time on different roads in several towns are costing $6,000. These bridges are being paid for by the towns.

Mrs. C. E. Van Hecke of this city clearly outdistanced a field of seven contestants in what was designated as district No. 4, and has been awarded an Overland touring car by the Catholic Citizen company of Milwaukee.

Several weeks ago the publishers of the Catholic Citizen started a subscription campaign, offering prizes which ranged from automobiles to gold filled watches, to people who secured the largest number of new subscribers. The state was divided into four districts, the city and county of Milwaukee comprising District No. 1, while all that territory between Stevens Point and Green Bay and including Portage, Waupaca, Winnebago, Outagamie, Brown, Oconto, and Kewaunee counties, formed the fourth district.

For each yearly subscription a designated number of votes was given, Mrs. Van Hecke's total amounting to 11,033,555, while her nearest competitor had a total of 4,239,355. As Overland cars now sell at $600, the prize secured by Mrs. Van Hecke was well worth striving for and she is heartily congratulated on the result of her efforts.

FRIDAY WAS HOTTEST SEPTEMBER 29 HERE

Related Summer Heat Grips Stevens Point, Sending Mercury Up to 86 Degrees

Friday was the hottest September 29 in the history of weather statistics kept at the post office here.

The mercury on Friday soared to a maximum of 86 degrees, a fairly high summer heat, and local residents who did much walking or were exposed to the sun's rays suddenly realized that a belated (dry) day was being experienced. It was even hot indoors until late in the afternoon.

Reference to government weather statistics at the post office show that 79 degrees was the hottest September 29 prior to Friday, as far back as 1912. Farther back than that nothing is known officially, as the weather service was begun here in 1912.

Small Boy Is Found Guarding Distillery On Big Plover Island

Four barrels containing 200 gallons of mash alleged to be used in the manufacture of illicit liquor, a forty-gallon, nickel-plated still and five gallons of alleged moonshine were found by Deputy Sheriff Manuel Berry on an island in the Big Plover river in the town of Dewey late Thursday afternoon. A boy between the age of nine and ten years was found in charge of the illicit distillery.

Carl Wrycha, the father of the boy found on the island, was brought before Judge W. F. Owen in county court on Friday, charged with the manufacture of liquor, and pleaded guilty. Judge Owen fined him $150 and assessed costs of $31.61.

Acting on a "hot" tip, Deputy Berry visited the territory in which the still was supposed to be located. Finding the island, he waded through the river, in water up to his shoulders, where he found the small boy guarding a steaming "kettle."

Wrycha told the district attorney that he had only recently purchased the still at a cost of $20.75, and that he had had little opportunity of doing business. He is now "out" the still, the purchase price and the $150 fine and costs.

The still is said to be the largest ever taken by Portage county authorities. It was so heavy that Deputy Manuel Berry had to call for assistance in order to move it into a car and bring it to the city.

FORMER MISSIONARY TALKS OF FAR EAST

Between 350 and 400 people attended the "Rally Day" program of the Sunday school of St. Paul's M. E. church on Sunday morning.

The program consisted of recitations and songs by the Sunday school scholars, and the main feature was an address by Dr. J. R. Denyes, a missionary for 20 years in Borneo, Java and Sumatra, among the Mohammedan, Chinese and native people of the islands.

Dr. Denyes also spoke in the evening to a large audience upon the subject of "The Rising Tide of Color in the Far East."

He pictured in dark colors the dangers to the white races of the world, if the colored races of the east should ever rise in war against the oppressions which the white races have practiced among them.

The billion members of the colored races of the east are filled with hatred of the white races, who number less than half as many, Dr. Denyes said.

Dr. Denyes spoke at the Rotary club luncheon this noon, and will speak at the Normal Tuesday morning.

FRANKLIN STREET NOT TO BE PAVED

Contractor Surrenders Contract and If Job Is Done Property Owners Must Again Petition

Franklin street will not be paved this season and if the work is done next year the entire procedure which was necessary to make the work possible this season, will again have to be gone through with.

George Childs, in charge of the Cast Stone Construction company which had the contract for the paving on this street, has unconditionally surrendered his contract to the city. He has informed City Attorney W. E. Atwell, who is also chairman of the board of public works, that he will not hold the city to the agreement. The company will personally accept whatever loss was incurred for labor and material used in preliminary work on Franklin street last week.

The Franklin street paving question was a long argued one in Stevens Point this summer and fall. Sentiment at first seemed to favor the paving of the street at once, but later, unexpected opposition developed when a group of property owners engaged attorneys and planned to take legal steps to prevent the work from going forward. They contended that proposed new underground work on the street should be done before the paving is laid.

Surrendering of the contract leaves the city and the property owners on the street with the entire procedure again to be gone through with if the paving is to be done next season, or at any other time. Property owners must again petition the city for the pavement, and their request will be acted upon and disposed of in the usual manner in the course of regular council business, it was learned. There is now no provision existing for the paving of the street next year.
